David Léclapart “L’Aphrodisiaque” – Pre-arrival (Q1 2021) Montagne de Reims, Champagne

David Léclapart crafts some of the most strikingly crystalline, energy-driven terroir champagnes of our generation. They are at the same time incredibly evocative, and sensorially indulgent. These qualities are expressed in no better form than his rarely produced L’Aphrodisiaque: originally an unplanned cuvée born out of adversity, this exceptional wine has made a second appearance as a result of the challenges faced during the 2016 growing season when David was again faced with the same level of mildew devastation that had struck his vineyards in 2012. A trouble-free harvest chez Léclapart usually results in an annual production of around 15,000 bottles. The 2016 harvest, however, yielded only enough fruit for a mere 7,000 bottles. David therefore decided to reprise his decision to blend his predominantly Chardonnay fruit with his Pinot Noir — and so we have been blessed with a second iteration of this über-rarity cuvée. L’Aphrodisiaque has us smitten. It perfectly marries David Léclapart’s signature purity and transformative energy with sophisticated hedonistic pleasure. The cuvée’s name perfectly captures this union: it is a Love Potion indeed. (Expected availability: Q1 2021).

Les Bottes Rouges – In-stock

Arbois / Abergement, Jura

Today, there's no wine region that is as hot than Jura. The region's pastoral, tranquil old-school vibe belies the fact that it is currently home to some of the most dynamic vigneron on the scene. One of them is Les Bottes Rouges, where the talented Jura-born vigneron, Jean-Baptiste Menigoz, and his Dutch winemaking partner-in-crime, Florien Kleine Snuverink, are making lively, fresh, lip-smacking wines in the legendary village of Arbois. The duo has steadily grown the estate to its current size of 7 hectares, which is spread across seven different plots of vines. As a team, Florien and Jean-Baptiste radiate full-on enthusiasm and passion for the work they do. This energy is transmitted through to their wines, which are consistently as vibrant and spirited as their makers. Les Bottes Rouges wines are transparent and electric, but also generous and expressive. Pour one into a glass and observe: you'll find its evolution over the next hour or two quite fascinating. All wines are in-stock.

Domaine Méo-Camuzet 2018 – Pre-arrival (Q1 2021)

Vosne-Romanée, Côte d'Or

With a distinguished history and an enduring reputation for exceptional wines, Domaine Méo-Camuzet has long been considered one of the top names in Burgundy. In spite of all the success, Jean-Nicolas Méo is not one to rest on his laurels. He observes and responds thoughtfully to the vagaries of each growing season, in seeking the most holistic and elegant approach to express the virtues of the vintage. His aim has always been to produce wines that combine structure and finesse, concentration and charm. We have been captivated by the increasing aromatic and textural finesse his wines have shown in recent years. In tasting and revisiting a succession of vintages over the years, we've also observed that Méo-Camuzet shines particularly brightly in generously fruited years like 2009 and 2015. The vivacious and lush vintage 2018 will be no different. (Expected availability: Q1 2021).

Domaine Confuron-Gindre 2018 – Pre-arrival (Q1 2021)

Vosne-Romanée, Côte d'Or

It's easy to assume that by now all of the notable addresses in the region have already been found, especially when it comes to producers in the most famous communes. But change is constant, and new protagonists continue to emerge. One such name is Domaine Confuron-Gindre. Confuron is a prominent name in Vosne, and for the longest time François Confuron-Gindre was the least prominent of all the domaines sporting this illustrious last name. However, its reputation has been escalating at lightning speed recently, thanks to two coincidental factors: the world's increasingly insatiable appetite for top-notch Burgundy, and the ascendance of a new generation at this family domaine: Edouard Confuron. Confuron-Gindre's wines have always been renowned for their extraordinary strength and depth, not least thanks to their various old-vine origins. What Edouard is seeking to do now is to frame them with even more finesse and elegance. He has already been making waves, and these 2018s from Domaine Confuron-Gindre are a testament to his abilities. True Burgundy lovers will not want to miss the chance to stock up on this domaine while it still flies under the radar — for now. (Expected availability: Q1 2021).

Domaine Génot-Boulanger 2018 – Pre-arrival (Q1 2021)

Meursault, Côte d'Or

With an exceptional portfolio that includes 3 Grand Crus and 13 Premier Crus, Domaine Génot-Boulanger has been going from strength to strength in the hands of the family's fourth generation. Guillaume and Aude Lavollée have been taking rigorous steps to put in place the right fundamentals, and these painstaking efforts are now bearing fruit, in the form of some seriously fine Burgundies. The escalation in finesse and quality of the domaine's wines in recent years has been extraordinary not least thanks to the Lavolées' relentless attention to details and Guillaume's winemaking talent. The wines are classical examples of fine Burgundy: distinguished and graceful, the result of an intense viticultural philosophy and a deep respect for the individual terroirs. Wine writers are beginning to take notice; their sophisticated 2018s are a landmark vintage that's definitely going places. (Expected availability: Q1 2021).

Château Lestignac & Hors les Murs – In-stock

Bergerac, Sud-Ouest (Southwest)

Change is afoot in the vast region of the Southwest of France, and leading the charge are passionate, driven and talented vignerons like Camille and Mathias Marquet. After graduating from university, the couple returned to Mathias' small Bergerac hometown of Lestignac in 2008. What was originally 13 hectares of vineyards was soon pared down so that only the best plots remained. The majority of the vines are between 40 to 60 years old, though they have some Merlot plantings that are almost 100 years old. In the cellar, Camille and Mathias follow a low-intervention approach, in line with their goal of magnifying the terroir in their wines. Like their makers, the wines display an outright personality, always exuberant and full of youthful fun, while never straying away from terroir precision. Expect electric, salivating whites and tensile, perfumed reds. In short: just darn good wholesome wines at oh-so-reasonable prices. All wines are in-stock.

Dirty & Rowdy – In-stock

Napa Valley, California USA

It's hard not to notice Dirty & Rowdy wines. Once you see them on the shelf, or on a wine list, it's hard to get them out of your mind. The labels are eye-catching, and the name itself just puts you in a good mood. But the best thing about Dirty & Rowdy is: they're darn delicious wines. Winemaker Hardy Wallace is proof that you can be serious about your craft and still make happy wines. These deceptively lip-smacking juices are indeed fun, but they also offer layers and ever-evolving expressions well beyond the first sip. Full of energy and always joyous, Dirty & Rowdy wines are consistently true not only to their varietals and terroirs, but also to their makers' earnestness and sincerity. Textured, aromatic and expressive, they're instantly oversubscribed every year from domestic demand alone. We were honoured that our little island was selected as their first ever export market way back with the 2011 vintage; these days, their wines are sought out by fans across the globe. All wines are in-stock.
