Domaine Amiot-Servelle 2018 – Pre-arrival (Q1 2021) Chambolle-Musigny, Côte d'Or

A dynamic domaine is proudly carrying the Chambolle-Musigny village flag high. The estate's exceptional vineyard holdings are nurtured by a close-knit family and their new generation is making better wines than ever. This domaine is Domaine Amiot-Servelle, founded by Clément Tachot in 1920 and now presided by the dynamic sister-and-brother team Prune and Antoine Amiot. Till today, the domaine remains the only certified organic producer in the whole of Chambolle-Musigny. Boasting a who's-who collection of vineyards spanning from the village to Morey-Saint-Denis and Gevrey-Chambertin, it is not unexpected that it's the Chambolle wines are what Amiot-Servelle is renowned for — and deservedly so. The collection of magnificent premier crus culminates to the vaunted Les Amoureuses, the domaine's crowning glory. We are thrilled to offer to you today our sophomore allocation of Domaine Amiot-Servelle, from the ravishing 2018 vintage. These wines are true representatives of Chambolle — delicately proportioned, articulate and undeniably elegant. They are a gems no self-respecting Burgundy lover would want to miss. (Expected availability: Q1 2021).

Chapuis Frères 2018 & 2019 – In-stock

Ladoix, Côte d'Or

Chapuis Frères is a team of two brothers, Romain and Jean-Guillaume, who were raised in Aloxe-Corton. The brothers produced their first wines in 2009 from their tiny cellar in Pommard, releasing four cuvées spread across just seventeen barrels. Taking the lead in the vineyard and the cellar is Romain Chapuis, a progressive next-generation vigneron who crafts highly delectable Burgundies in both colours. The wines encapsulate Romain's ethos — organic viticulture and non-interventionist winemaking — which results in extremely pure and delectable Burgundy wines that transcend their appellations. With their vibrant and non-conformist label designs, it may be convenient to put Chapuis' wines into the 'natural wine' category, but the wines are well beyond this simple categorisation. The wines of Chapuis Frères are juicy, transparent and possess tremendous vinosity, and they are always clean and faultless. The phrase "accessible Burgundy" is fast becoming a contradiction in terms, but here at Chapuis Frères, Romain proves it can still be true: each wine always tastes far more sophisticated than its price tag would suggest. Vintage 2018 and 2019 have been back-to-back banner years at Chapuis Frères. Romain nailed them across all colours, crafting supremely elegant wines that are almost contemplative in their beauty; wines that are calm yet authoritative in their flavour definitions. These are serious Burgundies of profound depth, complexity and intensity, and they are simply irresistible to drink. All wines are in-stock.

Arnot-Roberts – In-stock

Healdsburg, California, USA

With the founding of Arnot-Roberts in 2001, childhood friends Duncan Arnot Meyers and Nathan Lee Roberts created one of California's most progressive artisanal wineries. Together, they have helped lead the way in redefining the paradigm of terroir-driven California fine wine. Arnot-Roberts produces a highly diverse range of cuvées, and here's the kicker: each wine always turns out to be one of the best examples of its kind. That Duncan and Nathan work with predominantly purchased fruits only makes their consistent qualitative success even more mind boggling. These partners share a very unique talent: the knack for tracking down exceptional vineyards in superb, albeit often obscure, locations. We're thrilled to present the latest bottlings from Arnot-Roberts. Balance and poise mark every release from the winery, as do site articulation and pure lip-smacking deliciousness. Simply put, they are unmissable. All wines are in-stock.

Cruse Wine Co. – In-stock

Petaluma, California USA

Michael Cruse is a sincere, humble, kind-hearted geeky guy-next-door you want to hang out with. (The fact that he happens to make delicious wines you want to drink all the time only makes it easier to do so.) Little wonder that in a few short years, he has crafted a stellar reputation as one of the brightest new beacons coming out of California. And the accolades are still streaming in. At Cruse Wine Co., Michael makes highly aromatic whites and vibrant juicy reds that articulate their varieties and sites without pretense. They hark back to the original California wine, authentic and resplendent with the golden state's sun-drenched fruit, but charged with an unrestrained vivacity rarely found in mainstream examples. His goal is make honest wines which are just really good wines: expressive, lip-smacking and relatively affordable. In his own words, these wines are “Mom-approved”. This new collection is especially exciting because it reintroduces a wine genre that showcases Michael’s most special talent: making traditional method (or méthode champenoise) sparkling wines. From his perennial signature Valdigié, to the dangerously delectable Monkey Jacket, the exoticism of his Tannat, to the downright winning sparkling wines, there is, dare we say, a Cruse for everyone today. All wines are in-stock.
